Two Great Options to Honor Your Senior!

Parents of Washington University seniors join together in honoring the Class of 2016 through WashU’s commemorative brick and bookplates program. These tribute gifts recognize students’ achievements and celebrate their bright futures as WashU graduates.

Both your gift and completed brick and bookplate order form must be received by February 5, 2016 for installation before Commencement 2016.

By joining the William Greenleaf Eliot Society with a gift of $1,000 or more, you receive all the benefits of Eliot Society membership and the opportunity to order a brick for your senior. You may designate your Annual Fund gift to the school of your choice and other select programs.

Common engravings for senior bricks include the following: name and class year; name, major/fields of study, class year; name, sport/Greek life/student activity, class year.
