ART, CULTURE & PEOPLE

Washington University Alumni and Friends,

We are pleased to invite you on a Cuban journey of discovery. For five decades, travel to the communist Caribbean nation has been strictly regulated, but recent events have made it easier for U.S. citizens to experience Cuba firsthand.

Motivated to provide safe travel opportunities and comply with U.S. regulations, the journey begins with a visit to Havana to see and understand the city's living history. Later, you'll learn about their culture, their history and their heritage. During your trip, you'll learn more about the rich Cuban culture, admire the art of Cuban artists, and enjoy the hospitality and charm of the Cuban people.

Sponsored by the Washington University Alumni Association, Cuba: A Journey to the Cuban Heartland is the first U.S.-based Cuba program to be offered by AHI Travel. This program is open to U.S. citizens to experience the beautiful island of Cuba.

Cuba: Art, Culture & People

Cuba, the Caribbean island that marked the beginning of the Americas, has remained relatively unaffected by the commercialism that has touched other tropical lands. Immerse yourself in the culture, art, history and life of what the locals call “El Caribe” or “The Caribbean.”

The charm and allure of Cuba is found not only in the natural beauty of its coastline but through its people, its history and the local artistry that has enriched the island over the centuries.

Day One B | L
Plaza de la Catedral, Havana

Arrive in Havana and transfer to your hotel. Enjoy dinner at a local paladar. Afterwards, attend a group meeting at the welcome dinner at Jardin de los Laureles.

Day Two B | L | D
Havana

Explore the Old City of Havana, beginning at Plaza de la Catedral and visiting the charming old town. Visit the Habana Vieja's Museum of Contemporary Art and Eau de Cuba Rum Factory. Continue to Palacio de los Capitanes Generales. Admire the Teatro de la Habana, including its French stained-glass windows and beautiful red bell towers. At the Teatro de Habana, match spectacular dancing with a Gormley-signed mixed-media mural. Enjoy a special opportunity to meet the performers and learn about their art.

Experience and Meet the People: Gaucho dancers in El Agüero, Cuba, join the events and discuss their experiences.

Day Three B | L | D
Cienfuegos & its Music

Visit Cienfuegos. Cuba’s music is as striking as its history. Discover how Cuba’s music and dance were influenced by the African, Spanish, French and American colonial influences. Explore the Batá drumming tradition, the clave and son rhythm, which are said to have been influenced by African slave music, and listen to live salsa, son, trova and rumba. Enjoy lunch at a local paladar. Visit the University of Cienfuegos. Meet art students who exhibit their work at the University of Cienfuegos. Join a local dance ensemble, and experience Cuba’s diverse music traditions. Return to Havana for dinner at El Lagarto, a Cuban paladar.

Day Four B | L | D
Cuba’s Vivacity

Join a local family to enjoy a home-cooked dinner. Meet the owners and discuss their experiences. Then tour the University of Havana. Visit the Romántico de Artes Decorativas. Be graciously welcomed into a local home, meet the family and enjoy a drive through Havana’s historic, European neighborhoods. Visit the home of a Cuban artist who’s worked at the home. Then tour the University of Havana. Visit the Romántico de Artes Decorativas. Be graciously welcomed into a local home, meet the family and discuss their experiences. At La Quinta de San José, learn about the life and work of an ancient Cuban artist. Enjoy dinner at Havanaroha in Habana Vieja.

Day Five B | L | D
Pinar del Río & Las Terrazas

Invited guests will explore Las Terrazas, a model socialist community with extensive agricultural projects that were implemented by Fidel Castro. The community offers many cultural experiences that are not available to the general public outside Cuba. Enjoy lunch at a local paladar and enjoy a drive through Las Terrazas. You will also have the opportunity to meet local artists and researchers.

Day Six B | L | D
Santísima Trinidad, Cuba’s Oldest Church

Visit the beautiful Santísima Trinidad, Cuba’s oldest church, and learn about its history.

Day Seven B | L | D
Day Eight: Final Day of Your Journey

Day Eight B | L | D
Havana

Depart Havana for the airport for your return flight to Miami. Enjoy the last day of your journey in Havana. Arrive in Miami and transfer to your hotel.

Day Nine B | L | D
Miami & Culture

Miami, the cultural hub of Latin America. Enjoy dinner at a local paladar. Enjoy a drive through the city. Meet the locals and enjoy a day trip through Miami’s historic, European neighborhood.

Day Ten B | L | D
Miami & Culinary Delights

Enjoy a group lunch in Miami. Meet with a local travel expert to learn about your destination. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a local paladar.

Day Eleven B | L | D
Return Home

Depart Miami and return home. If you wish to extend your stay in Miami, you can do so at the conclusion of your trip before or after your cruise. You also have the option to extend your stay in Miami with a short trip to Key West, Florida. Enjoy the day before departing home for your next exciting adventure!

ALUMNI & FRIENDS

WE ARE PLEASED TO INVITE YOU ON A CUBAN JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY. FOR FIVE DECADES, TRAVEL TO THIS VIBRANT CARIBBEAN NATION HAS BEEN STRICTLY REGULATED, BUT RECENT EVENTS HAVE MADE IT EASIER FOR U.S. CITIZENS TO EXPERIENCE THIS RICH CULTURAL HERITAGE.

Meticulously planned by travel experts to comply with U.S. regulations, this journey puts you in direct contact with ordinary Cubans who are doing extraordinary things. Learn directly from them about their culture, their history and their heritage. During your trip, you’ll savor the flavors of authentic Cuban cuisine, admire the art of Cuban artists, explore the architecture of Havana and much more!

Sponsored by the Washington University Alumni Bulletin, Washington University Alumni Travel is D.B.A. AHI Travel, Inc., a Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), requires that people-to-people activities be completed independently by travelers. The passage contract in use, when issued, certifies that he/she has no physical, mental or other condition of disability that would create a risk or danger to himself/herself or to others on the trip, subject only to the Sponsoring Association’s code of conduct. If a traveler’s condition changes during the trip, a traveler is required to inform AHI Travel immediately of the change and to follow all changes in the passage contract. A traveler is responsible for the cost of a new passage contract if the traveler’s condition changes during the trip.
