Aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Small Ship
Five-Star Le Lyrial

September 15 to 23, 2019
Washington University Alumni and Friends:
Be part of a wonderful group—on a remarkable journey!

Join Washington University alumni and friends on a trip of a lifetime:
The unspoiled coastlines and islands of the azure Adriatic and Aegean Seas are dynamic crossroads of the Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations and their distinctive cultures that flourished there for more than three thousand years. Our comprehensive, custom-designed itinerary takes us along the pathway of these great civilizations into five countries—Italy, Croatia, Montenegro, Albania and Greece—and through the Corinth Canal, an extraordinary experience possible only by small ship.

What’s So Special About Traveling with Washington University?
Just about everything!

First and foremost, you’ll enjoy traveling with a wonderful group of alumni and friends who share your love of learning through travel. Discover the many hidden gems along the Dalmatian coast as daily life unfolds before you and merges with the legacies of ancient cultures. Enjoy our private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and the insightful COASTAL LIFE® Forum featuring personal perspectives from local Montenegrin residents where you’ll find camaraderie and a teresting spirit of adventure. In selecting this itinerary our Alumni Travel Committee also knew how much our group members would appreciate the luxury of the exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Lyrial, a small ship featuring 110 ocean-view Suites and Staterooms.

Do you have to be an alum to join a Washington University Travel Program trip?
Alumni, parents, friends—and their friends—are all welcome. The travel experience is made even more special when shared with others who love learning through travel.
So sign up today—on your own or with a friend—either way you’ll enjoy an unforgettable travel experience!

Don’t Wait: Space is limited, and our $4395 (per couple) early booking savings offer is only valid until February 15, 2019!

P.S. The Washington University Travel Committee strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance for every trip on which you plan to embark. Unforeseen circumstances may cause you to cancel your trip at the last minute, and travel insurance will help to ensure that your fees are refunded. Washington University does not offer its own travel insurance, but Gohagan & Company recommends a policy you may purchase.

Experience firsthand the true character and traditions of life along the sparkling coastlines of the Adriatic and Aegean Seas, and discover the lasting influence of ancient civilizations as you travel aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star small ship Le Lyrial. Engage with local residents, explore the history, culture, architecture and art—and unpack just once! Noted study leaders and experienced, English-speaking local guides will accompany you throughout this program to discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Croatia, Montenegro, Greece and Albania. This popular program of the Coastal Life® series offers a comprehensive, intimate journey at just the right pace, with a balanced itinerary of Cultural Enrichments including guided tours and time on your own to immerse yourself in the heart and soul of this charming, sun-kissed region.

*Available at additional cost.
Split, Croatia
Split’s nearly 2000-year-old city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was built on the foundation of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s retirement palace and remains a thriving community. Visit the Temple of Jupiter, one of the world’s best-preserved Roman temples, and the Cathedral of Saint Domnius (A.D. 305), regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral still in use in its original structure. Cultural Enrichment: Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor, Ivan Meštrović, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Meštrović Gallery.

Hvar
Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar. Visit the Old Town’s centuries-old landmarks including the Renaissance Cathedral of St. Stephen and its four-story bell tower. The 350-year-old Benedictine Convent is known for handcrafted unique lace made from agave and aloe thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Korčula
Inside the original 13th-century walls of this charming island city, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork; the house where Marco Polo is rumored to have been born; and masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark. Cultural Enrichment: By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional a cappella folk music, recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Dubrovnik
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” Dubrovnik is a UNESCO World Heritage site in recognition of its beautiful historic treasures. Visit the 15th-century Rector’s Palace and the fascinating Maritime Museum, and see Onofrio Fountain, the Romanesque Franciscan Monastery and the well-preserved Old City walls. Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy your afternoon at leisure to explore Dubrovnik’s history and culture.

Admire the Butrint amphitheater that once seated 2500 people.
Kotor, Montenegro
The breathtaking Bay of Kotor winds deep into the mountains of Montenegro, one of the newest nations in the world. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its Venetian Baroque Old Town and impressive medieval fortifications.

Cultural Enrichment: Meet and engage with local residents who will discuss daily life along the Adriatic during the specially arranged COASTAL LIFE® Forum.

Butrint, Albania
Virgil called Butrint parvam Troiam (little Troy), a stop for Aeneas and his exiled Trojans on their epic journey. A short drive to 16th-century Lekursi Castle provides a stunning panoramic view of the coastal city of Sarandë.

Cultural Enrichment: Butrint’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins trace three thousand years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. The Greco-Roman amphitheater evokes the ancient city’s rich cultural life. Public baths, a gymnasiaum and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled Baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity.

Corfu, Greece
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where cultural influences of past rulers are reflected in the French boulevards, Georgian mansions, Venetian citadel and Greek temple.

Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see the 17th-century Town Hall, once a Venetian theater, and the Edwardian Palace of the former king of Greece.

Delphi
Delphi, considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C., is now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to sacred Mount Parnassus to consult the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo. Tour the magnificent Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts including the life-size fifth-century B.C. bronze statue of the Charioteer of Delphi.

Cultural Enrichment: Walk along the Sacred Way to the sanctuary of Delphi and stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the common and the mighty once awaited the oracle’s pronouncements.

Corinth Canal
Cruise through the Corinth Canal, first thought to be proposed in the seventh century B.C. and not fully realized until 1893. Cutting through the Isthmus of Corinth and at one point only 70 feet wide, it is so narrow that only small ships can make its passage.

View the stunning, fjord-like Bay of Kotor in Montenegro, flanked by sheer cliffs.

Cruise through the Corinth Canal, an engineering marvel.
Five-Star, State-of-the-Art Small Ship
Join us aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Lyrial, where distinctive French sophistication meets innovative nautical design. The ship’s efficient electrical propulsion system and custom stabilizers provide an exceptionally smooth, quiet and comfortable voyage.

Respect for the Environment
With advanced technology and the most environmentally responsible features built into its design and operations, the ship has earned the important “clean ship” certification.

With Our Compliments
Indulge in these complimentary onboard amenities—alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages available throughout the cruise and in your Suite or Stateroom minibar, Wi-Fi access throughout the ship and 24-hour room service.

Chic and Casual Dining
The stylish dining room and casual alfresco restaurant feature international and regional cuisine and serve continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and dinner in four courses or buffet. Wine is served at your table with lunch and dinner.

Only 110 Suites and Staterooms—95% Include Private Balconies
Elegant, ocean-view accommodations range from 200 to 592 square feet, and most have a private balcony. Each air-conditioned, Five-Star Suite or Stateroom features individual climate control, two twin beds or one queen bed, a private bathroom with shower and luxurious hotel amenities, including flat-screen television, a safe, full-length closet, plush robes and slippers.

Life on Board
In addition to educational and cultural presentations, panoramic views, evening entertainment or peaceful retreat, the ship’s spacious public areas can accommodate all passengers. Enjoy two lounges, a theater, library, the Sun Deck with open-air bar, swimming pool, beauty salon, spa, Turkish bath-style steam room and fitness room. The ship has three elevators.

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew are personable and attentive; the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and nurse.
