What’s So Special About Traveling with Washington University?
Just about everything!

First and foremost, you’ll enjoy traveling with a wonderful group of alumni and friends who share your love of learning through travel. Whether standing face to face with Huế’s imperial Forbidden Purple City, exploring the additional UNESCO World Heritage sites of beautiful Ha Long Bay, ancient Hội An and the famed Temple of Angkor Wat, you’ll find camaraderie and a contagious spirit of adventure. In selecting this itinerary our Alumni Travel Committee also knew how much our group members would appreciate the luxury of the Five-Star Le Lapérouse.

Do you have to be an alum to join a Washington University Travel Program trip?
Alumni, parents, friends—and their friends—are all welcome. The travel experience is made even more special when shared with others who love learning through travel. So sign up today—on your own or with a friend—either way you’ll enjoy an unforgettable travel experience!

Don’t Wait: Space is limited, and our $2000 (per couple) early booking savings offer is only valid until April 9, 2019!

P.S. The Washington University Alumni Association strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance for every trip on which you plan to embark. Unforeseen circumstances may cause you to cancel your trip at the last minute, and travel insurance will help to ensure that your fees are refunded. Washington University does not offer its own travel insurance, but Gohagan & Company recommends a policy you may purchase.

BANGKOK Post-Cruise Option

Hanoi, Vietnam

The undeniable charm of this historic capital city resides in its shaded boulevards, bucolic parks and the city center—a time capsule of 1930s French-colonial architecture. The famous Ba Dinh Square is a testament to more recent history—see the imposing, granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. The Beaux-Arts-style former French Governor’s Residence is adjacent to the garden and modest cottage where Ho Chi Minh lived in the 1960s, and nearby, is the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda, one of Vietnam’s most iconic temples.

Cover: Cruise among the verdant limestone towers of idyllic Ha Long Bay, said to have been formed by dragons unleashed by the mythological Jade Emperor.

Built nine centuries ago, mystical Angkor Wat remains a pilgrimage site for Buddhist monks today.
Tour the Temple of Literature where scholars have studied Confucianism since A.D. 1070. Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum, “Hanoi Hilton,” which held captured pilots during the Vietnam War. Stroll the historic 36 Streets of the Old Quarter, named after the skilled craftspersons that worked there.

Ha Long Bay
Board a traditional Vietnamese junk for a private cruise through the natural wonders of Ha Long Bay, the “Bay of the Descending Dragon,” a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by its karst landscape. Amid over 3000 chalk and limestone islands, wooden-hulled junks with their signature orange sails glide along the bay’s tranquil waters between limestone islands with wave-eroded caves, coves and grottoes. Walk among the tapering natural stalactites and stalagmites in the natural grottoes of Thien Cung, the Heavenly Palace Cave.

Da Nang
Encircled by the Marble Mountains and clear blue waters, coastal Da Nang is known for its exquisite Museum of Cham Sculpture, exhibiting the world’s largest collection of Cham sandstone art and statues.

Hội An
Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hội An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic port for the lucrative spice trade.

Huế
The UNESCO World Heritage site of Huế, located on the banks of the Perfume River, was the Imperial City of the Nguyen kings from 1601 to 1945. Explore its Imperial Citadel and the massive ramparts and moat dating from the 18th and 19th centuries. Tour the Imperial Closure and the citadel within a citadel, the Forbidden Purple City, formerly reserved only for the royalty of the Nguyen Dynasty. Visit the 17th-century Thien Mu (Heavenly Lady) Pagoda, built to ensure the country’s prosperity; and the tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, built and designed by the emperor himself during the Nguyen dynasty.

where women still wear the traditional áo dài, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. See the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the City Opera House, both a distinct reminder of the city’s French Colonial history. Siem Reap, Cambodia, for Angkor

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Angkor was the capital of the Khmer Kingdom, one of the world’s most important archaeological sites located in the lush jungles of northern Cambodia. Tour the Temple of Angkor Wat, near the vibrant city of Siem Reap, built in the 12th century by King Suryavarman II to honor the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat, the largest religious structure in the world, stands in testament to the centuries-long grandeur of the prosperous Khmer empire.

Explore Hanoi’s vibrant city center on foot, by bicycle or by the city’s widespread rickshaws.

View Saigon’s striking, well-preserved, neoclassical Central Post Office opened in 1891 and Vietnam’s largest post office.

Visit Banteay Srei, the Citadel of Women, considered the jewel of Khmer art. Built in the 10th century from rose-pink sandstone, the temple is believed to be built by women, based on the intricacy of the elaborate carvings that adorn its peaked buildings. On the banks of the Siem Reap River, the monumental walled city of Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. See the towers of its Bayon Temple, with approximately 200 stone faces and bas-relief sculptures depicting historical scenes from everyday life of the Angkorian Khmer; interior artwork depicts scenes from Hindu mythology.

Explore the area surrounding the complex, including the ruins of the 11th-century Baphuon mountain temple and the intricately carved Terrace of the Elephants, the Terrace of the Leper King and the atmospheric Royal Palace.

Visit Ta Prohm, the fascinating 12th-century Buddhist temple left largely untouched in the jungle. With fig, banyan and kapok trees growing out of the ruins, the dynamic lifecycle between nature and humanity provides the basis for Ta Prohm’s “lost city” legendary tales. Tour the main workshop of the Artisans Angkor, which provides training for thousands of Cambodians to perpetuate the creation of their traditional, cultural handcrafts.

Admire the Lai Vien Kieu (Lady of the Pagoda) Bridge built to link Hội An’s Chinese and Japanese quarters. See Da Nang’s excellent collection at the Museum of Cham Sculpture.
