WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Breathtakingly wild and buzzing with spectacular color and life, Panama and Costa Rica boast some of the most unspoiled scenery in Central America: secluded, jungle-fringed beaches, towering mountains, and vivid coral reefs. Embark on a grand voyage of discovery aboard the MS Saint Laurent, a luxurious 210-guest ship, and watch the region’s natural jewels unfold before your very eyes.

Beginning in Costa Rica, step aboard the gracefully appointed MS Saint Laurent—perfectly equipped with new Mach5 Zodiacs—and cruise to celebrated parks and islands, blessed with rare wildlife and Eden-like beauty. Alongside a seasoned expedition team, delve into thriving environments untouched by time, including Manuel Antonio National Park and the Osa Peninsula. Experience a daytime crossing of the legendary Panama Canal, a must-see marvel on every cruiser’s bucket list. Head ashore at Panama City to admire the colonial charm of Casco Viejo, where crumbling ruins blend with ornate Spanish structures. Unwind on the San Blas Islands, a tropical paradise of powdery white sands and swaying coconut palms, before concluding your journey in Colombia.

Encounter these natural and man-made wonders from Haimark’s newest ship, the MS Saint Laurent. Delight in the modern comforts of your stylish stateroom or suite, treat yourself to fresh “hot rock” cooking at the Cliff Rock Grille, mingle with old and new friends in the English-style Seascape Tavern, and relax at one of the outdoor lounges—the perfect spot to sip a glass of wine under the stars or simply take in stunning views.

This outstanding voyage includes an ideal collection of expert-led shore excursions that will enrich your travel experience. Space is limited and sure to sell out quickly, so sign up now to take advantage of this incredible offer. Don’t miss the opportunity to discover some of the most ecologically diverse places on earth with fellow alumni.

P.S. The Washington University Travel Committee strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance for every trip on which you plan to embark. Unforeseen circumstances may cause you to cancel your trip at the last minute, and travel insurance will help to ensure that your fees are refunded. Washington University does not offer its own travel insurance, but you may purchase a policy from Go Next.

An expedition team of six will provide you with a deeper understanding of the places you’ll explore. Sparking engaging discussions both on board and ashore, these talented individuals combine a colorful range of expertise and interests, from marine biology and photography to scuba diving and ecology. Whether hiking into the wilds of vast parks and islands, or exploring rugged coasts and small inlets aboard new Mach5 Zodiacs, your team’s knowledge and passion will truly bring each destination to life.

WELCOME ABOARD the MS Saint Laurent, a superbly designed boutique vessel that captures the unparalleled intimacy, tranquility, and grace of small-ship cruising. Featuring a beautifully appointed interior with only 105 staterooms, she radiates modern sophistication as she glides along the sun-kissed shores of Panama, Costa Rica, and Colombia.

Experience the ecological treasures of Central America from the refined elegance of the MS Saint Laurent. Take in the astounding natural diversity of Coiba Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site dubbed the “Galápagos of Central America.” Wander cobbled streets framed by grand colonial architecture in Casco Viejo, a historic district that evokes the charms of the 17th century. Discover Panama’s best-kept secret, the palm-studded San Blas Islands, home of the Kuna Indians. And cruise through one of the greatest man-made wonders in the world, the Panama Canal. From Puerto Caldera to Cartagena, this 10-day cruise brings you the remote, wild riches of Central America with perfect ease and style.

WAYNE BROWN: EXPEDITION LEADER
Wayne has worked for small ship expedition cruises for over 19 years and is a published author, professional underwater photographer and a nationally acclaimed lecturer. He has been privileged to work with many respected institutions and individuals, including the Smithsonian Institution, Russian Academy of Sciences, Scripps Institute of Oceanography, Aquarium of the Pacific, and the late Jacques Cousteau. Wayne’s wife, Karen, is a scuba diving instructor, underwater photographer and marine educator with a degree in sociology from Wells College in Aurora, New York.
JAN 22: SAN JOSÉ (PUERTO CALDERA), COSTA RICA
From Costa Rica’s thriving capital city and urban cultural hub, San José, travel to Puerto Caldera and embark on your luxury cruise aboard the MS Saint Laurent.

JAN 23: MANUEL ANTONIO NATIONAL PARK, COSTA RICA
Experience the striking beauty of Manuel Antonio National Park, created in 1972 to protect the area’s unspoiled tropical rainforest and stunning beaches. Appreciate the park’s decades of preservation—from picturesque hidden coves, brilliant coral and lush foliage, to postcard-perfect beaches lapped by crystalline waters. This evening, celebrate your first day of discovery with a welcome reception and dinner on board.

JAN 24: OSA PENINSULA, COSTA RICA
In the morning, set out on a spectacular Zodiac expedition to the pristine Osa Peninsula, arguably Costa Rica’s crown jewel. Corcovado National Park, a naturally glorious reserve that occupies almost a third of the Osa Peninsula, is home to three species of monkeys as well as toucans and parrots. Stop at the San Pedrillo Ranger Station (weather permitting) to traverse the many rivers and streams of the jungle.

JAN 25: GOLFO DULCE, COSTA RICA
One of only three tropical fjords in the world, Golfo Dulce is a sanctuary for marine life, including dolphins, sea turtles, marlin, and red snapper. Accompanied by your expedition team, travel into the lush rainforest of Piedras Blancas National Park, which protects some of the last remaining stretches of lowland rainforest in the country, and take a Zodiac ride up the Rio Esquinas.

JAN 26: COIBA ISLAND, PANAMA
Once a playground for swashbuckling pirates, and later transformed into a notorious penal colony, Coiba Island is now a prized national park and UNESCO World Heritage Site. This afternoon, arrive at Granita de Oro, a tiny island that is part of the Coiba Island group. Join your expedition team to swim or snorkel in the island’s underwater paradise, a haven for brightly colored fish and unique sea creatures.

JAN 27: DARIÉN NATIONAL PARK, PANAMA
Navigate through the dense jungle of this bird-watcher’s paradise, where you may see yellow-bellied great kiskadees, red-cheeked woodpeckers, tapirs, sloths, and capybaras. One of the largest and wildest national parks in Central America, the Darién is home to the semi-nomadic Wounaan and Emberá, who use blowpipes for hunting and dugout canoes to traverse the many rivers and streams of the jungle.
JAN 28: PANAMA CITY, PANAMA
Begin your excursion with a visit to the city’s heart and soul, the colonial-era old town known as Casco Viejo. Admire the timeless character of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, with its elegantly restored French- and Spanish-influenced buildings, graceful wrought-iron balconies, fountain-dotted plazas, and magnificent cathedrals. Continue to Panama Viejo (Old Panama), the former capital of Panama, destroyed by the infamous Sir Henry Morgan and his pirates in 1671. Enjoy the afternoon at leisure.

JAN 29: PANAMA CANAL DAYTIME CROSSING
Enter the impressive Panama Canal for a daytime crossing through the famed waterway, an engineering feat that connects the Atlantic Ocean (via the Caribbean Sea) to the Pacific Ocean. The 48-mile-long canal cuts across the Isthmus of Panama and is a key conduit for international maritime trade.

JAN 30: SAN BLAS ISLANDS, PANAMA
From sugary white-sand beaches to gently swaying coconut palms, the San Blas Archipelago is a true vision of paradise. Board a Zodiac to discover the splendors of these sun-soaked islands located just off the Caribbean coast of Panama. A spectacular chain of over 365 tropical islands and cays, of which only about 50 are inhabited, the San Blas Islands are home to one of Latin America’s most fascinating indigenous cultures: the Kuna.

JAN 31: CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA
Disembark the MS Saint Laurent in one of South America’s most enchanting towns, Cartagena, a grand cultural and architectural feast.

Many shore excursions require guests to board and disembark a Zodiac. Guests are encouraged to bring proper footwear, as some shore excursions may require a “wet landing.”

Itinerary and sightseeing are subject to change.
Optional premium excursions will be available for an additional charge.
All guests must be able to ascend and descend the flight of stairs required to embark and disembark the ship.
Haimark Line, Ltd. may modify the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage. All cruise accommodations and shore excursions are arranged by Haimark Line, Ltd., which may use other suppliers or providers to render services.
The agreement in this brochure is the exclusive and entire statement of the agreement between you and Go Next, Inc. It should be read carefully.

FEATURED ONBOARD LECTURER

STEPHEN PRUETT-JONES is an associate professor in the Department of Ecology and Evolution at the University of Chicago. His research focuses on wild birds, and he is interested in social behavior and evolutionary biology. He has conducted fieldwork for more than 35 years on such birds as birds of prey, shorebirds, birds of paradise, bowerbirds, and fairy-wrens. During the summer Pruett-Jones teaches at the University of Michigan Biological Station and researches damselflies and dragonflies. In the Chicago region he studies the introduced monk parakeets; he is writing a book about parrots in the United States.
