September 8 to 16, 2014

featuring Elizabeth Childs
Chair, Washington University Department of Art History and Archaeology and Etta and Mark Steinberg Professor of Art History
Washington University Alumni and Friends:
Be part of a wonderful group—on a remarkable journey!

Join Washington University alumni and friends and special guest Elizabeth Childs, Chair, Washington University Department of Art History and Archaeology and Etta and Mark Steinberg Professor of Art History, on a trip of a lifetime. Experience France from the quintessential world-famous campagne (country) wine regions of Burgundy, Beaujolais and Provence in the south of the country to the sophisticated city life of Paris in the north of France on this exclusive seven-night TOWN & COUNTRY LIFE® program. You will enjoy traveling with alumni and friends who share your love of learning through travel. Whether enjoying private visits to enchanting châteaux in Burgundy and Beaujolais, exploring the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Arles and Orange, or marveling at the classic architecture of Paris, you’ll find camaraderie and a contagious spirit of adventure.

Elizabeth C. Childs earned a B.A. with honors in art history and anthropology at Wake Forest University. In 1989, she received her Ph.D. from Columbia University, where her dissertation examined the political caricature of the 19th century master, Daumier. She held curatorial posts at the Guggenheim Museum, and received a Florence Gould Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship from Princeton University, and arrived at Washington University in 1993. Professor Childs studies 19th and early 20th-century European and American art and visual culture. She has published on French modernists such as Daumier, Degas, Van Gogh, and Gauguin; on the role of photography in the exploration of the American West; and on the South Seas voyages of La Farge and Adams. She is the author of two books, and the co-author or editor of four more. Her most recent book is Vanishing Paradise: Art and Exoticism in Colonial Tahiti (2013). Dr. Childs will lecture on the career of Paul Cézanne in Aix-en-Provence, and the collaboration of Van Gogh and Gauguin in Arles, as well as the development of post-Impressionism more generally in late 19th-century France.

Don’t Wait: Space is limited, and our $2000 (per couple) early booking savings offer is only valid until March 3, 2014!

Don’t miss this opportunity to participate in this remarkable experience with Professor Elizabeth Childs!

Sincerely,

Susan Cohen
Executive Director, Alumni Relations
Washington University in St. Louis

P.S. The Washington University in St. Louis Alumni Association recommends that you purchase travel insurance for every trip on which you plan to embark. Unforeseen circumstances may cause you to cancel your trip at the last minute, and travel insurance will help to ensure that your fees are refunded. Washington University does not offer its own travel insurance, but Gohagan & Company offers a policy you may purchase.

Monday, September 8
Depart from the U.S.

Marseilles/Arles, France
Tuesday, September 9
Arrive in Marseilles, meet your Program Director and transfer to Arles. Embark the M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY and enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board before dinner.

Arles/Avignon
Wednesday, September 10
Few places on Earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to one of the most majestic Roman monuments in France and the world, the Amphitheater, that was built in the first century B.C. and could hold up to 20,000 spectators. Visit Arles’ 12th-century Cathedral of St. Trophime with its fascinating Last Judgement-themed portal, one of the finest examples of Romanesque sculpture. Between 1888 and 1889 Vincent van Gogh lived in Arles and the subject of his famous Night Café painting is still open for business on the lively Boulevard des Lices.

Following lunch on board the ship, transfer to Avignon, where during the 14th century the city became the center of western Christendom when Pope Clement V arrived here after fleeing the turmoil of Rome in 1309. The next six pontiffs enlarged the city into one of the richest and most powerful in Europe, until the Great Schism with Rome (1378) led to the eventual end of the Avignon Papacy (1405). On the walking tour, visit the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), one of the largest châteaux-forts built in Europe during the Gothic era, the primary reflection of Avignon’s golden age and one of the most famous landmarks in France. Walk to the nearby splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Domes, which offers panoramic views of the River Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of the famous Pont d’Avignon one of the most beautiful bridges constructed during the Middle Ages. You can stroll along the city’s well-preserved, 14th-century ramparts, one of the finest surviving examples of medieval fortification. The afternoon and evening are at leisure in Avignon.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape for Orange
Thursday, September 11
Experience the stunning beauty of the French countryside and the aged stucco houses painted Provençal peach, raspberry, rose or green—and accented by shutters in every hue of blue—en route to the Roman city of Orange and its amazing UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the well-preserved, ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Roman Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century as a tribute to Augustus and a symbol of Roman imperial glory.

Continue to Pont du Gard, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit the exquisitely built 2,000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes. This magnificent structure was constructed of stones made to fit together seamlessly without mortar and makes clever use of arches to support the weight.

Trévoux for Beaujolais
Friday, September 12
From the lovely vineyards of the province of Beaujolais des Pierres Dorées, the land of the “golden stones,” come France’s youngest and fruitiest wines. This internationally acclaimed wine region located along the shores of the River Saône has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d’Or, Côte Chalonnais and Mâconnais combined. Travel over verdant rolling hills into the heart of the church-spired Beaujolais region to enjoy a private tour of the historic Château de Montmelas that has remained in the same family since 1566. Châtelaine Madame d’Harcourt will greet you and share the château’s storied past during a guided tour. An international recording artist will perform a specially arranged, private fortepiano concert in this splendid setting, followed by a sampling of the château’s wines and a tasting of local cheese and charcuterie.

Chalon-sur-Saône for Beaune
Saturday, September 13
This morning, transfer through the idyllic Burgundy countryside to the enchanting Château de Rully, a picturesque medieval fortress surrounded by vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will take you on a private tour of the estate, his family’s ancestral home since the 12th century. Continue to Beaune, a bustling community founded in the fifth century B.C. in the famous Côte d’Or département and the longtime capital of Burgundy wines. A stroll through this city of art reveals historic mansions and medieval half-timbered houses. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu, a quintessential example of Burgundian Renaissance architecture, distinguished by the geometric patterns created by its multicolored glazed roof tiles. The meticulously restored chambers provide a fascinating glimpse into hospital life during the 15th century and houses an impressive collection of period art, including the brilliant Last Judgment by Rogier van der Weyden.
Enjoy time at leisure in the historic, quintessential wine-producing town of Chalon-sur-Saône. Explore lively Place Saint-Vincent, dominated by the Romanesque cathedral and lined with quaint cafés, specialty shops and local wine cellars. Peruse the collections in the quayside art gallery or the museum dedicated to the inventor of the photograph, Joseph Nicéphore-Niépce. Or stroll across the picturesque Saint-Laurent bridge.

The Captain’s Farewell Reception and dinner are on board the ship this evening.

Lyon/Paris
Sunday, September 14

Disembark the ship and transfer to Lyon, a UNESCO World Heritage site located at the confluence of the River Rhône and River Saône. From lofty Fourvière Hill (Praying Hill), see the ornate 19th-century Basilica of Notre Dame and the restored Vieux (old) Lyon, where well-preserved elegant Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry. Walk through the ancient quarter of St. Jean, and see the unique, charming, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

After lunch in one of Lyon’s oldest brasseries, transfer to the Lyon train station and board one of France’s greatest technological achievements, the TGV (Train à Grande Vitesse) high-speed train to Paris; it can reach speeds up to 200 miles per hour.

Arrive in magnificent Paris, an artful mélange of rich history and contemporary treasures. Transfer to the deluxe WESSEX PARIS - VENDÔME hotel, ideally located in the heart of Paris’ stylish first arrondissement, a short walk from Place Vendôme and the Louvre. The evening is at leisure.

Paris
Monday, September 15

What began as a small, isolated Celtic farming settlement on an island in the River Seine developed over the centuries into one of the great cities of the world. And yet, the French capital retains its classical, purely Parisian atmosphere.

After breakfast, see Paris’ most legendary monuments and sites. Admire the soaring grace of the Eiffel Tower’s black iron lace, built for the Universal Exhibition of 1889; imposing Notre Dame, a UNESCO World Heritage site located on Île de la Cité, a small natural island in the historic River Seine; and the lovely, bustling Place de la Concorde.

Enjoy a guided tour of the priceless art of the legendary Louvre Museum, home to an unrivaled collection of masterpieces tracing the arc of humankind’s artistic achievements from Ancient Egypt to the 19th century.

Have lunch on your own and perhaps do as the Parisians do—browse the marché in search of the perfect fromage and jambon baguette.

This afternoon, join the optional excursion to visit Montmartre, the bohemian hilltop neighborhood that for more than 200 years has been a favorite haunt of artists like Pablo Picasso and Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec. Enjoy a guided walking tour of the village and lively Place du Tertre; admire the stunning Romano-Byzantine white stone Sacré Coeur Basilica; and view the Espace Dalí, a permanent exhibition dedicated to the surrealist painter.

Alternatively, immerse yourself in Parisian daily life at your own pace. Explore the nearby pedestrian-only Rue Montorgueil, that has the ambiance of an ancient village hidden away in the city center. Stop at the legendary mid-19th-century Café de la Paix, adjacent to L’Opéra Garnier, to sip a creamy café au lait and observer les gens (people-watch). For a sweet ending to your afternoon at leisure, nibble on a French macaron at the pâtisserie Ladurée or sample the chocolat at Pierre Hermé.

This evening, enjoy a Farewell Reception in the hotel.

Paris/U.S.
Tuesday, September 16

Check out of the hotel and continue on the London Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your flight home.
WESTIN PARIS - VENDÔME

Ideally located in the heart of Paris’ first arrondissement, the deluxe WESTIN PARIS - VENDÔME hotel is located across the Rue de Rivoli from the Tuileries Garden, near Place Vendôme and Place de la Concorde and a short walk to the Louvre. Guest rooms are attractively appointed in a contemporary style with a Parisian influence. Inventive French cuisine is offered in Le First restaurant and on La Terrasse outdoor patio.

M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY

The elegance and romance of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart’s music was inspiration in the meticulous crafting of the deluxe M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY, which set new standards in design and technology and features the comforts of a floating Five-Star hotel.

This exclusively chartered ship offers 73 river-view, air-conditioned, stylishly appointed Suites (236 square feet) and Staterooms (161 square feet), among the most spacious of any European river ship. All accommodations feature two twin beds (convertible to one queen-size bed), a private bathroom with shower (Suites have bathtub with shower), individual climate control, satellite telephone and television, writing desk, safe and hair dryer. Suites and Staterooms on the Mozart Deck have a French balcony (floor-to-ceiling sliding glass door with iron railing).

Freshly prepared continental meals featuring local ingredients are served in single, unassigned seatings in the delightfully scenic Panorama Restaurant and include early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast and lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner. Live piano music is played during afternoon tea, and complimentary wine is served with lunch and dinner.

Public facilities are spacious and include the Panorama Bar, Lido Bar, Amadeus-Club with Internet station, beauty salon, fitness studio with massage services and early morning exercise classes, and Sun Deck with outdoor dipping pool, chess board and walking track. Guests will also appreciate the complimentary Quietvox audio system available to all passengers for listening enhancement during shore excursions. Laundry service is available.

The English-speaking, international crew provides warm hospitality. The M.S. AMADEUS SYMPHONY meets the highest safety standards and is one of the only European river ships to have been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

IMPORTANT, READ CAREFULLY.

REGISTRATION: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be disclosed to the tour operator or your travel agent in writing at the time of reservation, and you are responsible for ensuring that all airlines, hotels, restaurants, bus carriers, cruise lines, or any other person or entity engaged in carrying out tour arrangements (e.g., changes in flight times, hotel arrangements, or itinerary changes; accidents; injuries; damages, or loss), or for any other event or cause outside the control of the Washington University, is at its own risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept any person as a participant on these trips at any time. Room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line. Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the class of the airline, hotel rooms or accommodation, meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the above terms and conditions. Baggage allowances policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. Please contact your airline(s) for the most current luggage allowance policy.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or part of the trip including Pre/Post Program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply; reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 ($30 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 121 days prior to departure; from 95 through 120 days prior to departure, $600 ($200 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 5% of the published full regular tariffs; from 22 through 59 days prior to departure, 70% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 21 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: Because our cancellation policies are strictly enforced, we strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement for uninsured losses. Comprehensive cancellation insurance is available through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company and others for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. We will send you an application and information on our reservations.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after final payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges, and other RFPs and/or unforeseen increases in the true cost of any of the line items included in the cost of your tour. On all land tours, management is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bugs from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, civil or political unrest, or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart on time or safely. If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, Gohagan is not liable for any negligence or willful act or failure to act to fix any person or entity or of any other third party.
