P.S. The Washington University Travel Committee strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance for every trip on which you plan to embark. Unforeseen circumstances may cause you to cancel your trip at the last minute, and travel insurance will help to ensure that your fees are refunded. Washington University does not offer its own travel insurance, but Gohagan & Company offers a policy you may purchase.

Joining us on this trip will be Ralph Quatrano, Dean of the School of Engineering & Applied Science and the Spencer T. Olin Professor of Biology at WUSTL. Quatrano is an accomplished researcher in plant science with over 160 papers published. He was editor-in-chief for the premier journal of plant biology (The Plant Cell) and on the editorial board for Science Magazine. Furthermore, Quatrano has been honored with the prestigious Gude Award from the American Society of Plant Biologists for outstanding national and international service to the science of plant biology. He has served as a key administrator at WUSTL; Chairman of Biology, Director of the Division of Biology and Biomedical Sciences, and Dean of the Schools of Arts & Sciences and Engineering & Applied Science.
Flourishing Cultures along Iberia's Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery are showcased on this voyage to fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain the artistic and architectural treasures from the Moorish Period. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans and the Moors' acceptance of both Jewish and Christian life allowed for the coexistence of diverse cultural groups, which led to great leaps forward in algebra, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and ability was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. It was those journeys, which brought the bounty back to Iberia, that created great wealth and established an aristocratic tradition of savoring the leisurely pace of Mediterranean life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages that you will experience on this voyage.

Lisbon, Portugal
Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.

Portimão, the Algarve
On Portugal’s charming, sun-washed southern coast, in the historic province of Algarve, lies Portimão. Settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans, the Algarve was later ruled by the Moors, and today its Moorish heritage survives in its distinctive architecture and savory regional cuisine. During the 15th and 16th centuries, intrepid Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery that eventually circled the globe before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

Visit the scenic port town of Lagos, once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa, where weathered sandstone cliffs form pillars rising 60 feet from sparkling turquoise seawater. Here, admire the Baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its stunning interior of gold-gilded, carved wood.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain
Enjoy the unique experience of cruising into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital, on the Guadalquivir River. Then drive along Colón Avenue, lined with typical Sevillana houses, to the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring (the largest in Spain) and the Golden Tower, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications.

Walk through Santa Cruz Quarter, the old part of the city, a gleaming maze of white houses and flower-filled patios. Tour the legendary Alcázar, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville’s Moroccan and Spanish rulers.

The idyllic Balearic Island of Ibiza, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is famous for its cove beaches, mesmerizing crystal-clear waters and high towering cliffs, and it is one of Europe’s oldest towns.
The magnificent Cathedral is a classic example of late Gothic architecture and is Europe’s second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here from Havana, Cuba, in 1902. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco dance performance on board the ship.

Gibraltar, British Crown Colony
The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the 1400-foot-high limestone promontory guarding the Strait of Gibraltar, which separates Europe and Africa. Observe the amusing antics of Gibraltar’s Barbary apes, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. See the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave and, across the strait, Jebel Moussa, the mountain said to be the second Pillar of Hercules. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore “The Rock” on your own.

Granada, Andalusia, Spain
Granada is scenically located atop three hills framed by the dramatic backdrop of the snow-clad Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Ibiza, Balearic Islands
Be on deck as we approach the Mediterranean island of Ibiza, a spectacular UNESCO World Heritage site not often visited by Americans. Visit the well-preserved, walled Old Town and tour the island’s Renaissance fortifications and the historic Las Salinas Reserve, where the Carthaginians began extracting salt from the sea over 2000 years ago.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands
The imposing citadel overlooking the harbor was converted into the Spanish Royal Palace of La Almudaina in the 13th century. See the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, begun in 1230 and constructed over 300 years; it represents the heights of the Catalan Gothic style. Early 20th-century renovations to its interior by the famed architect Antoni Gaudí produced a uniquely harmonious blend of old and new. In the village of Valldemossa, visit the famous Carthusian Monastery, the former residence of composer Frédéric Chopin.

Barcelona
The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona’s Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic treasures of Gaudí, Picasso and Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.
