A Message from the Dean

We are honored and thrilled to receive this generous $150,000 scholarship challenge. With this gift, Cynthia Heath, JD ’82, celebrates so much: our Law School’s 150th Anniversary, our heritage of educating students from all walks of life, and the unique experiences of our alumnae across the decades. Her gift also provides much needed scholarship support for our wonderful and talented students.

Cynthia has let me know that her own WashU Law education provided countless advantages and benefits over the course of her career, and I am grateful that she now seeks to “pay it forward.” As a challenge for all law alumni and friends, Cynthia hopes her gift will inspire others to support all students who dream of receiving a Washington University School of Law education.

I hope you will join Cynthia and participate in this timely and important challenge with your own new or increased gift of scholarship support.

Sincerely,

Dean Nancy Staudt, JD, PhD
Howard & Caroline Cayne Professor of Law
Washington University School of Law

The Cynthia Heath Women’s Law Initiative Scholarship Challenge

Cynthia Heath, JD ’82, and Dean Nancy Staudt
About Cynthia Heath

Cynthia Heath, JD ’82, believes strongly in the power of education and the important lessons learned from history. In 2015, Ms. Heath and a committed group of law school alumnae established the Women’s Law Initiative. Inspired by Nancy Staudt, the first woman to serve as dean of Washington University School of Law, the initiative works to build and strengthen a supportive, inclusive community of law alumnae. The group focuses on leadership, networking, educational opportunities, service, and fostering support for alumnae, law students, and the School of Law.

Ms. Heath established this generous $150,000 challenge to recognize the superior legal education offered by the law school, and to celebrate the women who dared to pursue careers in law early on—paving the way for future generations of legal professionals. Above all, she hopes this challenge will encourage increased gifts to scholarships so law students from all walks of life may have the same opportunities she enjoyed.

How the Challenge Works

The Cynthia Heath Women’s Law Initiative Scholarship Challenge will match all new and increased Law Annual Fund gifts that are designated to scholarships, up to $150,000. For increased gifts, only the amount of the increase will be matched.
