Bethany and Robert Millard

Bethany and Bob Millard split their time between New York City and Boston and serve as chairs of the Washington University Parents Annual Fund.

In 1996, Mrs. Millard helped found Special Music School, the only K–12 public school in the U.S. that incorporates conservatory-level music training within the academic day. She currently chairs their advisory board and is vice president of the Kaufman Music Center, the private partner of the school. Mrs. Millard also serves on the board of New York Public Radio and chairs the WQXR advisory board.

Since 2014, Mr. Millard has been chairman of the MIT Corporation, the board of trustees at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also serves on the boards of several publicly held companies.

The Millards’ son Oliver is a member of the College of Arts & Sciences Class of 2021. They hope this challenge will inspire other parents to join the Eliot Society and help continue the university’s longstanding tradition of excellence.
How the Challenge Works

The Millard Family Challenge for the William Greenleaf Eliot Society will provide the following (up to $100,000):
• $1,000 for each new family that joins the Eliot Society at any level
• $2,500 for each current Eliot Society family that increases its annual support by one level or more

About the Eliot Society

The William Greenleaf Eliot Society recognizes donors who make unrestricted Annual Fund gifts of $1,000 or more to Washington University.

The Annual Fund provides resources for students’ most critical and immediate needs—research opportunities, facility and technology upgrades, internships, and career services—and contributions from Eliot Society members are the largest source of unrestricted funds for the university.

Eliot Society members are leaders in giving, and their generosity supports the university’s mission of teaching, research, and service to society. Last year, 354 parents of current Washington University students and alumni joined the Eliot Society with gifts ranging from $1,000 to more than $100,000.
