Sandy Rothschild, AB ’67, MBA ’71, was president of Sandy Rothschild & Associates, Inc. from 1985 to 2016. The company specialized in property and sales tax reductions for clients and government relations. Mr. Rothschild has been a loyal and active member of the William Greenleaf Eliot Society, serving as chairman of the Athletics Eliot Society Committee for five years and earning a Life Member designation. He also served a term on the Alumni Board of Governors, has held volunteer leadership roles for Reunion, and has participated for many years on the W Club Executive Committee.

I invest in Washington University Athletics because our outstanding student-athletes demonstrate the highest degree of excellence both in the classroom and on the playing field. As a supporter of WashU Athletics at the Eliot Society level for the past 21 years, I have seen firsthand how our support has strengthened the athletics program. Each year, gifts to the Annual Fund for Athletics provide the resources necessary to help our student-athletes pursue their championship aspirations and enjoy the best possible learning experience at Washington University. The excellence of WashU Athletics is a team effort, and all of us can play a part. I invite you to help shape the future of the Washington University Athletics program by making a gift today.

About the Eliot Society

The William Greenleaf Eliot Society recognizes donors who make Annual Fund gifts of $1,000 or more to Washington University. Eliot Society members provide the university’s largest source of unrestricted annual funds, which help student-athletes excel as scholars, competitors, and leaders.

Gifts to the Annual Fund for Athletics/W Club provide resources for sports performance, sports medicine, robust non-conference schedules, and more. With support from WashU Athletics and Eliot Society members, our student-athletes consistently rise to national levels of competition and go on to pursue excellence throughout their lives.
