A Message from the Dean

We are honored and thrilled to receive this generous $250,000 gift to scholarships from Martin Frey, JD ’65, who in 2020 will celebrate his 55th law school reunion! As a former law professor, Marty knows the value of a legal education and how it can change lives, and he has dedicated much of his professional life to educating students. With this gift, Marty celebrates legal education and provides much needed scholarship support for our wonderful and talented students, both present and future.

I am grateful to Marty for his wish to “pay it forward” and help us garner added funds to enable the best and brightest students in the nation to join this incredible community that is WashULaw. Marty hopes his gift will inspire others to support students who dream of a WashULaw education.

I hope you will join Marty with your own gift to support scholarships. We are thankful to him and all of you who contribute to this fine school. It is you, your accomplishments, and your generosity that make WashULaw the incredible school we are today.

Thank you!

Nancy Staudt

About Martin A. Frey

Martin A. Frey, JD ’65, spent almost 50 years in the classroom. As professor emeritus at The University of Tulsa, he now uses his legal skills as an investigator with the Financial Crimes Unit of the Tulsa Police Department. During his extensive career as a legal educator, Marty mentored numerous students and colleagues, received teaching awards, co-authored textbooks, conducted settlement conferences for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, and was regularly involved in the law school accreditation process of the American Bar Association.

Martin A. Frey’s Scholarship Support

Professor Frey has made a generous commitment of $250,000 to leverage additional scholarship support for the School of Law. In 2016, he established the Betty and Morrey Frey Endowed Scholarship in honor of his late parents. Marty attended his first Scholars in Law Dinner in 2017. After meeting the beneficiary of his scholarship, other scholarship recipients, professors, and donors, he knew he wanted to increase his support for scholarships. Marty made this commitment to encourage others to join the William Greenleaf Eliot Society with a gift of $1,000 or increase their giving level.

The School of Law Annual Fund

Washington University School of Law is firmly established as a leading law school—with alumni practicing in every state and 24 countries around the globe—and we are committed to sustained academic excellence. The law school attracts the most talented students from around the world and prepares them to succeed in legal practice, public service, and business. Being able to offer annual scholarships based on need and merit is key to our success. With the generous support of alumni and friends, we are able to offer scholarships to students with excellent academic credentials, strong leadership skills, and a commitment to the pursuit of justice.
