Ray and Anita Hacker

Ray Hacker, AB ’57, graduated from Washington University with a bachelor’s degree in political science and law. He earned his master’s degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. In his corporate career with Ford Motor Company, he served as Ford’s Global Real Estate Manager. After retirement, Ray continues to manage his private real estate and investment holdings.

Ray is a key volunteer leader in the Detroit area. He currently chairs the Michigan Regional Cabinet, Campaign Committee, and Eliot Society Committee. He also serves on the National Planned Giving Committee. Ray received the Arts & Sciences Founders Day Distinguished Alumni Award in 1986 and Detroit Regional Award in 2003.

Ray and his wife, Anita, have been married for more than 55 years and enjoy extensive worldwide travel. Anita also serves on the Michigan Regional Cabinet and Campaign Committee.

The Hacker Michigan Challenge
The Hacker Michigan Challenge

Ray and Anita Hacker have established a $500,000 challenge to encourage new, increased, and multi-year commitments toward scholarships by alumni, parents, and friends of Washington University who reside in Michigan.

This generous challenge supports the Annual Fund, a vital part of Leading Together: The Campaign for Washington University. It also supports the Michigan Regional Campaign of Leading Together. Your scholarship gift may be directed to the school of your choice.

Today, about half of our students receive some financial assistance to attend Washington University. The university is committed to offering talented men and women from all backgrounds the opportunity to fulfill their potential in every field of endeavor.

“We feel strongly that Michigan can play an important role in Leading Together, and we encourage alumni, parents, and friends from our great state to join us in supporting scholarships at Washington University.”

—Ray and Anita Hacker

How the Challenge Works

The Hacker Michigan Challenge will match all qualifying gifts to the Annual Fund designated for scholarship support by donors from Michigan.
