A Message from the Dean

For 148 years, outstanding students have attended Washington University Law. Today some of the best and brightest students in the world compete for admission to our school. Washington University Law is one of the nation’s top law schools, and our student body consistently ranks among the strongest in the country.

A great law school makes an impact through its students and the work they do throughout their lives. Our students—as lawyers, business professionals, public interest advocates and individuals—will leave here with the capacity to shape and influence our world. We share a responsibility to help them improve and excel each and every day.

We are pleased and proud that Alicia McDonnell, one of our distinguished alumni, has established the Alicia McDonnell Annual Fund Scholarship Challenge to encourage others to increase their support. The Annual Fund helps us to sustain and enhance the excellence of Washington University Law and is a vital part of Leading Together: The Campaign for Washington University.

I urge you to lend your support today.

Sincerely,

Nancy Staudt
Dean and the Howard & Caroline Cayne Professor of Law

The Alicia McDonnell Annual Fund
Scholarship Challenge
The Alicia McDonnell Annual Fund Scholarship Challenge

A generous gift from Alicia McDonnell will match new and increased Annual Fund and scholarship gifts of $100 or more to Washington University Law and support the goals of Leading Together: The Campaign for Washington University. Approximately 80 percent of students at Washington University Law need some form of financial assistance to pursue their legal education. The Annual Fund is a major source of scholarship support at the law school. In addition, it provides:

- Public service internships and externships
- Top-ranked clinical programs, benefiting the community and those in need
- Enhanced academic programs
- Distinguished legal faculty
- International law programs
- State-of-the-art law library

Alicia McDonnell, JD ’95, practiced law for 15 years in Boston, where she served as an assistant district attorney for Suffolk County, Mass., and a city attorney for the Boston Police Department. As a supervising assistant district attorney for Suffolk County, she supervised and trained assistant district attorneys, oversaw all prosecutions of cases in Dorchester Court and maintained a caseload of high-priority and sensitive cases. She is a member of the National Council of the School of Law and serves as vice chair of scholarships and fellowships for Leading Together: The Campaign for Washington University.

Every gift makes a tremendous difference to the law school and its students.

How the Challenge Works

The McDonnell Challenge will match all gifts to the Annual Fund of $100 or more. For increased gifts, only the amount of the increase will be matched. Any gift may be directed to scholarship support.
