Children will participate in engaging activities that are both exciting and educational. Activities include arts and crafts and a Mad Scientist presentation. Children will also enjoy a magic show and decorating a T-shirt.

Baby Bears Ages 2 and Under
Child care is available for infants and toddlers during both Bear Club Sessions. Care and age-appropriate activities will be provided by staff from TLC, a licensed and bonded temporary child care service and supervised by Washington University staff. REUNION CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

Each year, alumni from each of the reuniting classes commemorate their Reunion year with a Class Gift to the university. Any gift made between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015 counts toward your Reunion Class Gift total. If you make a five-year pledge, the total pledge amount will count toward your Class Gift, not just the first-year payment. Your contribution may be directed to the school or program of your choice.

WHY ALUMNI GIVE

Scholarships: Your gift helps make a top-tier education possible for talented students across the country and around the globe, regardless of their financial circumstances.

College Rankings: Alumni participation is a key factor in college rankings. When you show your support for Wash U by making a gift, you help increase the percentage of alumni participation and enhance the value of your degree.

Outstanding Faculty: Gifts to the Annual Fund make it possible to recruit and retain faculty who are leaders in their fields. Washington University’s top-notch scholars and scientists combine their distinguished research with a passion for teaching that inspires generations of students.

Friendly Competition: The class with the highest increase in participation will be presented with the Class of 1948 Participation Trophy by Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton at the Saturday Alumni BBQ.

Special Thank-You Gift: When you make a gift of any size in honor of your Reunion, you will receive a limited edition Wash U T-shirt – available for pickup at Reunion or mailed to you automatically following the event. Made of 100% combed ringspun cotton jersey knit, this Canvas-brand T-shirt will quickly become your favorite way to show your love of Wash U!
